Re: Special Use Permit

To Whom It May Concern,

My wife and I bought this property and surrounding land a little over two years ago. I wanted to demo the existing 1800's cabin that came with the property as I knew how much work it would take to restore it. My wife, on the other hand, would not let me demo a piece of Franklin County History. She wanted to restore it and preserve it for all to enjoy. This cabin was built in 1887 by a Giles Perdue who was in the Civil War and is buried out back of the house in a small cemetery with his second wife and other family members. This cabin is also featured in the Booker T. Washington visitors center on their welcome video. We would like to request a special use permit to rent it out as a vacation home for everyone coming to this area to enjoy a piece of our history. There shouldn't be any changes to the surrounding area, as we have improved it from the eye sore that it once was to a beautiful place to stay. This place should bring in people to the area that will spend money and help boost our economy as well as the tax revenue it should bring to Franklin County. We live close to this neighborhood and one of our daughters is next to this property, so we will take the upmost care when considering someone as an overnight guest.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "B J Martin". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Billy J. Martin
